KSF CONTINGENT JOINS INTERFLEX OPERATION FOR UKRAINIAN ARMY TRAINING

The Ministry of Defense held the departing ceremony of the Kosovo Security Force Contingent in the Operation INTERFLEX, which is being carried out in coordination with the United Kingdom, in support and preparation of the military personnel of Ukraine. The Minister of Defense, Ejup Maqedonci, on this occasion said that this marks another success of the KSF and another achievement of the Ministry of Defense and the Republic of Kosovo, stressing that the participation of the KSF teams, within the Operation INTERFLEX, for the training and preparation of the Ukrainian military, shows the confidence that the United Kingdom, as the leader of this multinational activity, has in the dedication, integrity and professional preparation of the members of the KSF.

Meanwhile, the Commander of the KSF, Lieutenant General Bashkim Jashari, expressed his gratefulness that through the excellent cooperation between the KSF and the British Army, was made possible to send this contingent of KSF soldiers as instructors in the INTERFLEX operation. He emphasized that we have an obligation to help the people of Ukraine in their efforts for freedom, just as our allies have helped us and stood by us, in the most difficult times, and that this important mission and similar missions in which the KSF is engaged, are clearly showing that day by day Kosovo is changing from a consumer of security to a contributor of peace in the world and genuine democratic values. The Deputy Ambassador of the United Kingdom to the Republic of Kosovo, Paul O'Connor, also addressed those present at the ceremony, who expressed his satisfaction that Kosovo has supported and demonstrated full solidarity with Ukraine and the Ukrainian people since the beginning of the war. This ceremony was attended by the Minister of Defense, Ejup Maqedonci, the Commander of the KSF, Lieutenant General Bashkim Jashari, the Deputy Minister of the MoD, Shemsi Sylaj, the Deputy Commander of the KSF, Major General Enver Cikaqi, the Deputy Ambassador of the United Kingdom to the Republic of Kosovo, Paul O'Connor, Director of NALT, Brigadier General, Ralf Hammerstein, Deputy Secretary General of the MoD, Gafurr Dugolli, Brigadier General Ilir Qeriqi, Brigadier General Hysen Dreshaj, as well as senior officials and officers of the MoD and KSF, as well as the United Kingdom.

Operation INTERFLEX takes place in the United Kingdom and is aimed at training troops of the Ukrainian Army. The Ministry of Defense and the KSF have offered the readiness to engage instructors to assist the training process of the Ukrainian Army within this operation. This commitment of the Kosovo Security Force is in line with the position of the institutions of Kosovo in support of the people and the just war of Ukraine.
