Kosovo and Albania Strengthen Defense Cooperation

The Minister of Defense, Ejup Maqedonci, welcomed the new Minister of Defense of Albania, Pirro Vengu, accompanied by his delegation, with a high military ceremony.

After the meeting between the two ministers, a bilateral meeting was also held between the delegations, where close and fraternal cooperation was discussed, as well as its expansion, especially in the fields of defense and security. At the press conference organized on the occasion of this visit, Minister Maqedonci thanked his counterpart for the honor and respect shown during his first visit abroad to the Republic of Kosovo.

“We continuously cooperate with the Republic of Albania and the Albanian Army to face every challenge, danger, and threat that aims to jeopardize our common heritage, values, and security. With the support of the Republic of Albania, we intend to be part of other Euro-Atlantic structures in the future,” said Minister Maqedonci, adding that as two democratic countries, we will continue to contribute to the global fight against the dangers that threaten global security.

Meanwhile, the Minister of Defense of Albania, Pirro Vengu, thanked Minister Maqedonci for the warm and fraternal welcome and, among other things, emphasized that the Ministry of Defense and AFRA, with all the resources they have, will support the KSF in increasing its capacities as well as in investing in human capital.

The two defense ministers emphasized that the excellent cooperation in the fields of defense and security between the two countries will continue to deepen, especially in the areas of training and operationalization, with special emphasis on the expansion of cooperation in the military industry.

Kosovo Defense Minister Hosted NATO Assistant Secretary General to Discuss Regional Security and NATO Integration

The Minister of Defense of Kosovo, Ejup Maqedonci, hosted the Assistant Secretary General of NATO for Operations, Thomas Goffus, at the Ministry of Defense.

Among other things, during the meeting they exchanged information and views about the general security situation in Kosovo and the region.

Minister Maqedonci informed Mr. Goffus about the developments in the Ministry of Defense and the Kosovo Security Force and thanked him for the support that NATO is giving to the development of the Ministry of Defense and the Kosovo Security Force, through the Advisory Liaison Team, as and KFOR's contribution to maintaining peace and security.

Among other things, Minister Maqedonci has emphasized that the Republic of Kosovo remains steadfast on its path towards integration in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

KSF is Ready to Continue its Development and Become a Professional, Interoperable Force with NATO and its Allies

Lieutenant General Bashkim Jashari hosted the Military Representative of the United Kingdom to NATO and the EU,

Lieutenant General Ian Cave Cb. General Jashari thanked him for the continued support that the United Kingdom provides bilaterally, as well as in his capacity as the United Kingdom's military representative in NATO and the EU. The excellent cooperation between the Armed Forces of the United Kingdom and the Kosovo Security Force (KSF) in training, exercises, and joint landings was enhanced. General Jashari also informed General Cave of the achievements of the KSF, the transition plan, and his focus as a commander within this plan on the development of infantry regiments and specialist capacities in other units.

General Cave thanked General Jashari for the reception and congratulated him on the development of the KSF and its increasing capacities. The two generals also discussed the security situation in Kosovo and the region, as well as the fact that the KSF is a force that contributes to the security of the region and beyond.

Among other things, General Jashari stated that the KSF is ready to continue its development and to take all necessary actions to become a professional and interoperable force with NATO and its allies.

General Erhard Bühler Visited Ministry of Defense to Discuss Security and NATO Aspirations

nga qytetarët e Republikës

Burimi: Instituti Ndërkombëtar Republikan, 2024

In a survey for the Western Balkans conducted by the International Republican Institute, 67% of respondents rated the Kosovo Security Force as the most reliable institution in Kosovo. The citizens of the Republic of Kosovo expressed full confidence in the Kosovo Security Force.

This result reflects the dedication of the members of our army, guided by the principles of transparency and full accountability of the Ministry of Defense and the Kosovo Security Force in fulfilling their objectives.

Kosovo Army: A Priority for the Government of the Republic of Kosovo

It has been proven that the army is a priority for the Government of the Republic of Kosovo.

Within this mandate, it has recruited 1,931 new soldiers and cadets, while forty cadets are still in the process of being recruited. The increase in defense capacities was a promise of the Minister of Defense, and in addition to doubling the total number of soldiers, investments have been made to ensure that the Kosovo army has the most modern weapons systems in its military arsenal.

The number of recruitment and development activities foreseen in the Comprehensive Transition Plan has not only been met but exceeded. The Ministry of Defense and the KSF are ahead in the implementation of the CTP, with a clearer vision than ever for the future of the Kosovo army as part of the great NATO alliance.

The agreement was signed by the General Secretary of the Ministry of Defense, Gafurr Dugolli, and the German attaché in Kosovo, Lieutenant Colonel Oliver Palkowitsch.

With this agreement, which amounts to 7.74 million euros, it is intended that through the purchase of various specialized equipment, the operational capacities of the National Training Center for Search and Rescue and the National Guard will be advanced.

The signing of the said agreement will have a direct impact on the fulfillment of the mission of the KSF in military support for the civil authorities.

Türkiye Supports Kosovo's Defense with 31 Million Lira Donation

The Government of the Republic of Türkiye has allocated 31 million liras, or about 1 million US dollars, to the Ministry of Defense of the Republic of Kosovo as a donation to increase the military capacities of the KSF. This donation is part of the Turkish government's external military support program.

The relations between our two countries have always been at the highest levels, and the contribution of the Republic of Türkiye in raising the capacities of the Kosovo Security Force has been continuous, both in terms of training and military equipment.

The Minister of Defense, Ejup Maqedonci, thanked the Republic of Türkiye for the donation and assured that our cooperation, built in the spirit of mutual trust, will continue in the years to come. Türkiye, as a friendly country, remains one of the most important strategic partners for the Republic of Kosovo.

Deputy Minister Sylja Stayed on an Official Visit to The United Kingdom

The Deputy Minister of Defence, Shemsi Sylja, stayed on an official visit to the United Kingdom at the invitation of Air Vice Marshal Nigel Maddox CBE. On this occasion, the delegation from the Ministry of Defense and the Kosovo Security Force, visited the Royal Air Force base in Swanwick to learn about the air command and control system of Great Britain. The delegation was hosted by the high command of Squadron 78 of the Royal Air Force and officials from the prestigious company IBM. During this visit, the delegation had the opportunity to become familiar with the operations and capacities of the GUARDIAN system, which is used by many NATO countries. Additionally, the delegation conducted cultural visits to understand the values and ancient history of the British people.

Facilitating KSF's Global Engagement: New Law Amendments Approved

At the 214th meeting of the Government of the Republic of Kosovo, the Draft Law on the amendment and completion of the Law on Sending the Security Force of Kosovo Abroad was approved. Based on the current mission of the Kosovo Security Force and the readiness of our army to participate in international operations, as well as the increased interest in cooperation with friendly countries, the amendment of the provision that deals with the actions taken within the procedure for the participation of military members in other military activities was made with the aim of facilitating and simplifying the relevant procedures, so as to avoid any possible delay or obstacle in providing the possibility of professional and academic training for military members.

KSF Soldiers Honored for Participation in Operation INTERFLEX

For their outstanding performance and contribution within the “Interflex” operation, the Minister of Defense, Ejup Maqedonci, decorated the members of the KSF who were part of the contingent participating in the “Interflex” international operation with medals for “Participation in International Operations.”

The minister expressed his gratitude to the soldiers who, with professionalism, dedication, and commitment shown during the service in this operation, represented the Republic of Kosovo in a dignified manner.

In this operation, for six consecutive months, alongside the British Army and twelve other participating countries, the KSF soldiers provided training for the Ukrainian Armed Forces at the tactical and combat level.

On this occasion, COMKSF thanked the contingent for their professionalism, dedication, and commitment during the service in this mission. General Jashari emphasized that this contingent has represented the Republic of Kosovo in the best possible way, and as a result, it is being continued with other contingents. In the end, COMKSF gave recognition to the contingent for outstanding performance.

Operation INTERFLEX is a multinational operation aimed at preparing and training the Ukrainian army in their fight for the protection of sovereignty and territorial integrity against Russian aggression. During this six-month mission (January-July 2024), our members, together with British Army soldiers, have been engaged as instructors in training the Armed Forces of Ukraine in various combat tasks.

Kosovo Supports Ukraine with EOD Training for Ukrainian Trainees

The third group of trainees from Ukraine in the EOD ½ training was certified last month. For 6 weeks, KSF Demining Company instructors and US EUCOM instructors trained the trainees in explosive device recognition, specialized equipment, and work procedures on how to safely dispose of explosive devices.

At the certification ceremony, the Commander of the National Guard of the Kosovo Security Force, Brigadier General Naim Haziri, congratulated the trainees, emphasizing the importance of their noble mission. He also mentioned the importance of the support provided by the KSF as an army aligned with Western allies to assist Ukraine in the mission of removing unexploded ordnance.

The trainees will return to Ukraine and contribute to their units in eliminating explosive device hazards. The Kosovo Security Force has continuously offered its capacities to help Ukraine cope with the invasion by Russia.

Honoring Excellence: US Defense Personnel Receive Medals in Kosovo

In a ceremony organized on the occasion of the end of their mission in our country, Minister Maqedonci awarded the Distinguished Service Medal to the US Defense Attaché in Kosovo, Colonel Darrick Mosley, the Chief of the Defense Cooperation Office at the US Embassy, Lieutenant Colonel Ryan Conley, and the US Military Attaché in Kosovo, Lieutenant Colonel Benjamin Kim.

“The excellent cooperation in the field of defense between Kosovo and the USA is also the result of the sincere and continuous commitment and dedication of the military personnel of the American Embassy in Kosovo, of which I am a witness from the past as a soldier and now as a minister,” Minister Maqedonci emphasized.

Wishing them success in their new tasks, Minister Maqedonci confirmed with Colonel Mosley, Lieutenant Colonel Conley, and Lieutenant Colonel Kim the lifelong friendship with the Ministry of Defense and the Kosovo Security Force, while expressing the belief that the special cooperation will continue with their successors.

Lieutenant General Bashkim Jashari appreciated the high level of cooperation between the KSF and the US military forces in the field of training, exercises, and joint operations. General Jashari said that their contribution has been essential in multiplying joint activities. Colonel Mosley, Lt. Col. Conley, and Lt. Col. Kim were awarded the Selfless Service Medal for distinguished service and performance while performing duties as the US military representatives in Kosovo for continued support and advancement of bilateral military relations between the two countries.

General Jashari Participated in US National Guard Bureau Ceremonies

At the invitation of the US National Guard Bureau, the Commander of the KSF, Lieutenant General Bashkim Jashari, made an official visit to Washington, DC, in the USA. During the visit, General Jashari, accompanied by the Commander of the Iowa National Guard, Stephen Osborn, had the opportunity to meet the highest leaders of the US Army and the US National Guard Bureau. General Jashari met with the Army Chief of Staff, General Randy George, whom he thanked for his continued support for the KSF and discussed shared priorities for the future.

Following the visit, General Jashari participated in the handover ceremony of the US National Guard Bureau Chief. This ceremony was led by the Chairman of the Joint Staff of the US Armed Forces, General Charles Q. Brown Jr., where General Daniel Hokanson left office. COMKSF thanked General Hokanson for his leadership within the State Partnership Program between the Kosovo Security Force and the Iowa National Guard. General Jashari also participated in the acceptance ceremony for the position of Army Director of the National Guard Bureau, where Lieutenant General Jon Jensen retired and General Jonathan M.
